BOMA BUFFALO

GROW WITH US IN 2025

103 Years of Building Community
within the Real Estate Industry

ABOUT US

The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) is a non-profit trade association and a federated chapter of BOMA International.

Established in 1921, our mission is to actively represent the best interests of the commercial real estate owner, the real estate professional, and industry service providers through effective leadership in advocacy, through the collection and dissemination of information, and the professional development and accreditation of the real estate professional.
